It is not improbable that his official reply to the protest of the Governor of Macao contained something which neutralised the soothing syrup it was supposed to have conveyed. An inquest was held at the New Government Hospital yesterday afternoon, before the Coroner, Mr. C. V. Creagh, and a jury composed of Messrs. H. Cohen, F. Rapp, and E. T. The body being so much decomposed it was impossible to state whether the rope, which was found around the neck, had anything to do with the cause of death. Death was apparently caused by drowning.
